

The Displacement,
Extinction and Genocide of the Pontic Greeks 1916–1923

Edited by
Medardus Brehl and Kristin Platt

380 Seiten · broschiert · € 44,90

ISBN 978-3-95832-198-4

© Velbrück Wissenschaft 2025

Content

Editorial	9
---------------------	---

I. Setting the Stage: Nationalism, War and Violence in Late Ottoman History

Medardus Brehl / Mibran Dabag Frameworks of Genocidal Transformation in the Late Ottoman Empire and Early Turkey: Knowledge of Order and the Construction of Turkishness . . .	17
--	----

Thea Halo From the Balkans to Anatolia: Pogroms to Genocide . . .	39
---	----

Antonis Klapsis The Megali Idea and the Pontic Question, 1919–1922 . . .	65
---	----

II. Demographic Policy and Genocidal Intent in the Late Ottoman Empire

Vasileios Th. Meichanetsidis Genocide of the Greeks of the Ottoman Empire: Assessing Genocidal Intent	83
--	----

Theodosios Kyriakidis Deportation as a Tool for the Genocide of the Greeks of Pontos	176
---	-----

III. The Pontic Case: Genocidal Practices in Local Perspectives

Tessa Hofmann

Yalova/Nicomedia 1920/1921:

Massacres and Inter-Ethnic Conflict in a Failing State 199

Nikos Sigalas

Baha Bey in Samsun: The Displacement of Canik's Romei and the Burning of their Villages in January 1917.

217

Zeynep Türkyılmaz

A Story of Struggle for Survival:
Crypto-Christians of Pontos.

From Resistance to Expulsion 277

Robert Shenk

The 1921–22 Pontus Depredations

as Shown in American Naval War Diaries 298

IV. Representation and Reconstruction: Literature and Law

Monika Albrecht

Displacement and Extinction of the Ottoman Greeks:
Reflections on Contemporary German Memory

Culture and Politics 321

Miltiadis Sarigiannidis

International Law against the Politics of Evil:

The Case of the Genocide of Pontic Greeks, 1916–1923 343

The Authors 373